Description:

This "outing" is a car trip with as many stops as you want at various locations along the way on primary forest Route 14 to Cherry Lake Reservoir. This is a Stanislaus National Forest road that is pretty well maintained with lots of opportunity for visits to several meadows and other "roadside" accessible locations.

Trailhead Directions:

There is no specific trailhead as this is primarily a car “outing” with as many stops as you want to make.
